especially in south and easterly sections of this section of the city. I have lots on Ayer St., Kirk St., Quarry Circle, Camp, Tremont, East, Currier, Grandview, Long St., any of which I will sell at as favorable prices, or more favorable than equally as desirable lots can be had elsewhere. If you were to buy a cow you would usually see a party who had many for sale, rather than buy streets. Notice they are our best streets and lots well elevated. No fear of surface water or floods.

AYERS FAMILY REUNION

Was Held at Plainfield Thursday and Was Enjoyable.

Plainfield, Aug. 27.—The descendants of the late John P. Ayers held their fifth annual reunion at Camp Ayers in the maple grove on the farm of L. C. Baldwin Thursday, Aug. 25. Although the day was fine, several of the members were detained by sickness, so the gathering was not as large as usual. A bountiful dinner was served to the guests, who did it ample justice. The tables were decorated with cut flowers, tastefully arranged by the hostess, Mrs. L. C. Baldwin. Those present were V. E. Ayers, F. L. Page, Mrs. A. W. Clark and children at Barre; Mr. and Mrs. William Bancroft and niece of Pawtucket, R. I.; Arthur Page of Lynde, N. H.; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cate and son of North Montpelier; Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Page and children, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Colby, Burnham and Ethel Colby, Mrs. Viola Bemis and daughter, Ethel, and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Baldwin of Plainfield. Letters were read from the following absent ones: Mrs. Lucia Ayers, Rockefeller, Ill.; Mrs. Malvina Stone, Pasadena, Cal.; Burton Colby, Amelia, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Colby, Seaborn, N. D.; and Mrs. Anna Lathrop, Rockefeller, Ill. V. E. Ayers of Barre, president of the association, opened the afternoon exercises with words of welcome. The reports were read by the secretary and treasurer, which were followed by a roll-call, the members responding by remarks, poems and readings. Ellen Waldo Colby read a prophecy which is supposed to take place in ten years, that caused much laughter. Burnham Colby gave the amusing reading, entitled, "The Debating Society," which was much appreciated. An original poem was read by Fred L. Page. The following officers were elected and committees appointed: President, V. E. Ayers of Barre; vice presidents, F. J. Bancroft, Pawtucket, R. I., John T. Ayers, Libertyville, Ill., Fred L. Page, Barre, and R. A. Colby, Amelia, Ia.; secretary, Mrs. Viola Bemis; treasurer, Mrs. L. C. Baldwin; committee on resolutions, Mrs. Ellen Waldo Colby, Fred L. Page and Mrs. Viola Bemis; committee on entertainment, Misses Ethel Colby, Ethel Bemis and Jettie Clark. The exercises were closed by the members singing, "My Childhood Home."

Kings of Ethiopian Comedy

Mr. Theatregoer, here's an act that we have been fishing for for nearly a year. This is POSITIVELY THE FUNNIEST ACT THAT EVER CAME TO BARRE. Considered the BEST BLACK-FACE KNOCKABOUT ACT IN THE WORLD. COSTING US OVER THREE TIMES AS MUCH AS ANY DOUBLE ACT WE EVER HAD. Don't miss this act. It's simply great. Come to-night and you will never regret it.

Hart

Animal imitator, and tales of the zo-o. This act is different from all others of its kind. Mr. Hart was for years a keeper in the New York zoo. With the aid of a megaphone this man produces imitations that are truly wonderful.
